Webinar on Nation Building through Value Based Education: Role of Teacher

05.08.2021

To celebrate 75 years of Independence, M.G.N. College of Education, Jalandhar organized a webinar on the topic "Nation Building through Value Based Education: Role of a Teacher" on 05.08.21. The resource person for the webinar was Dr.Dinesh Arora, Associate Professor, P.G. Department of Political Science, D.A.V College, Jalandhar. While speaking he said that the purpose of education was to make human a true human, but still we are lagging behind to attain that aim. While elaborating the meaning of value he explained it as principle of life which tell us about what is right or wrong and lead us to the path of contentment. He also stressed that the teacher has a great role to play in developing values among students as he/she gives message of not to swerve from the path of Truth and Dharma and contribute something useful to the society. He further focused that nation building can be done through value based teaching disseminated by nation builders as value leads to character and good character leads to nation building. While speaking he considered Teacher as the most important source of nation building as enlightened human beings are created by good teachers. He concluded by saying that Teachers can change lives with just the right mix of chalk and challenges. On this day, Principal Mrs.Neelu Jhunjhi welcomed the guest of the day and threw light on his academic and professional excellence. Dr.Meharban Singh hosted the event and gave vote of thanks. One of the participants, Dr.Ashok Kumar Khurana, Assistant Professor from D.A.V College, Jalandhar, raised his concern by saying that in this challenging scenario most teachers are bound to modify their values and in light of this we need to rethink about the current education system. Around 100 participants from different colleges of Punjab attended the webinar. The entire event was coordinated by Dr.Meharban Singh.

To commemorate the 400th Birth Anniversary of Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Ji, Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of M.G.N. College of Education, Jalandhar organised a Webinar on 13-10-2020 on the topic, "Hind Di Chadar - Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Ji : A Prophet and a Martyr". The resource person of the Webinar was S.Dilbagh Singh Talwara, Member (Sikh Helping Sikh, Australia, Jal.Chapter : Sri Sehaj Path Sewa, Amritsar). While speaking on the occasion, the resource person described in depth the circumstances leading to Guru's death, who fought against forced conversion and other religious impositions before he was beheaded on the orders of Mughal emperor Aurangzeb. He further added that Guru Ji deeply imbued with the spirit of kindness and self-sacrifice and he fearlessly stood up for the rescue of Hinduism. He also said that many saints, sages and heroes have died for the sake of their own convictions, but no one in the history of the world has ever laid down his life to protect a religion or ideals in which he did not fully believe. He also added that Guru Ji showed the path of divinity to his disciples by teaching them to overcome greed, desire, ego and pain. On this day, Principal Mrs.Neelu Jhanji welcomed the guest and said that Guru Ji by sacrificing his life in protest against injustice to mankind, set an enduring precedent of humanity based on truthfulness and godliness. She also appealed all to follow the path of righteousness and justice commenced by Guru Teg Bahadur Ji. Dr.Radha Arora gave formal vote of thanks. Dr.Meharban Singh hosted the Webinar. Around 125 participants from various parts of the nation attended the Webinar. The entire event was co-ordinated by Dr.Radha Arora, Dr.Ravjeet Kaur, Dr.Pooja Bhardwaj and Mrs.Shivani Gulati.

To commemorate the 400th Birth Anniversary of Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Ji, Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of M.G.N. College of Education, Jalandhar organised a Webinar on 22.08.2020 on the topic, "Relevance of Guru Teg Bahadur Ji's Bani in the Present Scenario". The resource person of the Webinar was S.Udam Singh Award honoured Punjabi writer Dr.Manvinder Singh, from Department of Guru Nanak Studies, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. While speaking on the occasion, the resource person said that for Guru Teg Bahadur Ji, the religious question was about the extent of one's faith, beyond the externalities associated with the religion. He emphasised that Guru Teg Bahadur ji preached love, charity, brotherhood and peace over and beyond mere tokens of religious faith. He further said that in today's time, religious freedom has become even more constricted and this is the best time to remember Guru Teg Bahadur Ji's sacrifice for greater good that lead us to follow the ideals of secularism and humanitarianism. On this day, Principal Mrs.Neelu Jhanji welcomed the guest and said that we need to follow the path of peace and contentment as shown by Guru Teg Bahadar Ji by attaining „Jiwan Mukti" that is making peace with every life situation. Dr.Radha Arora gave formal vote of thanks. Dr.Meharban Singh hosted the Webinar. Around 250 participants from various parts of the state attended the Webinar. Extension Lecture on "Moral Values"

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of M.G.N. College of Education, Jalandhar organized an Extension Lecture on „Moral Values“ by S.Satnam Singh Salhopuri. Principal Bhai Kahn Singh Nabha Institute of Human Resource Department on 06-03-2020. While speaking, Satnum Singh Salhpuri said that „Raftar“, „Guftar“ and „Dastar“ are three essential components of the personality of a man. During his lecture, he urged that teachers should develop the values systems for adolescents so that they can handle pre-pressure, depression and undue stress effectively by listening and reading religious books. He further said that mere reading of religious books is not sufficient for righteous living for this we need to practice the teachings and preachings of these books in our life by making it our way of living. He further added that by doing „Sahaj Paath“ everyday, we can master our uncontrolled emotions and unwanted desires. He urged the youth to observe „Priority“, „Patience“ and „Discipline“ in their life to attain success. On this occasion, Principal Mrs.Neelu Jhanji welcomed the guest. While speaking, she said that true religion is serving and loving the humanity and by following the path of religion we can make this globe a better place to live. On this day, Sardarni Poonam Kaur, volunteer, Sikh Helping Sikhs, was also present. This event was co-ordinated by Dr.Radha Arora, Dr.Ravjeet Kaur, Dr.Pooja Bhardwaj and Mrs.Shivani Gulati. ## Expert Talk on "Women Health & Hygiene – Anemia and Balanced Diet "

Women Welfare Committee of MGN College of Education, Jalandhar organized an expert talk on the topic „Women Health and Hygiene – Anemia and Balanced Diet” by Dr.Arpana Chodha, Rural Medical Officer on 11-09-2019. While speaking she made aware about what is Anemia, i.e lower level of Red Blood Cells. She further explained that Anemia is the most common blood related problem affecting one third of the total population globally, which is due to lack of nutritious food, trauma and excessive internal blood loss. She further suggested that we should take three meals per day and take healthy snacks in between to maintain good health. She suggested to avoid fast food, frozen food and even mobile phones. She further elaborated that excessive use of mobile phones can cause fertility related problems among women. For good health, she suggested that at least sixty minutes of daily workout is must and a sound sleep is required. Further she explained that lack of knowledge about balanced diet, bad cooking and irregular deworming can lead to malnutrition and illness among females and focused on women personal hygiene which is vital to women health. She also urged that each and every educational institutions must have clean water and sanitary facility to maintain personal hygiene and stressed on breaking of taboos related to women health and hygiene. Afterwards, there was an interaction session with the female students where students took suggestions regarding their physical ailments.

Extension Lecture on "Life Skills in Education"

06.09.2019

Under the Student Enrichment Programme, Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of M.G.N. College of Education, Jalandhar organized an extension lecture on the topic "Life Skills in Education" by Dr.Kirandeep Kaur, Professor, Department of Education, Punjabi University, Patiala on 06.09.2019. While speaking, she said that society always looks upon teachers as their role model, but in the modern era that role is changing. She further emphasized that now a days youth are caught with „Emotional Obesity“, means accumulation of feelings due to lack of sharing opportunities, which lead to poor well being amongst youth. She further focused that in this era of globalization life skills like self-awareness, empathy, critical thinking, problem solving, decision making, effective communication and coping with emotions are must to instill in the present education system to ensure the overall health of the youth and society by large. On this occasion, Principal Mrs.Neelu Jhanji conveyed her heartfelt thanks to the guest. While speaking she stressed on making life skills as the integral part of curriculum, to make learners humane and well-adjusted in society. Dr.Ravjeet Kaur conducted the stage and formally welcomed the guest.

Extension Lecture on "Tips to Avoid Plagiarism"

11.08.2018

On 11.08.2018, the extension lecture was organized on the topic, "Tips to avoid Plagiarism". The speaker was Prof. Sandeep Bermal, Department of Education, Chaudhary Ranbir Singh University, Jind, Haryana. While speaking on this occasion he threw light on the plagiarism and its types. While speaking, he portrayed his deep concern for the fact that in spite of being having largest number of teachers and highest number of scientists in India, we still fail to make fruitful discoveries due to Plagiarism. He defined Plagiarism as an act of presenting another's work or idea as your own and gave different types of Plagiarism viz. Copying, Patchwork, Paraphrasing and Unintentional. Further, he also mentioned the penalty for students and teachers against different levels of Plagiarism as well. While speaking he added that we can avoid Plagiarism by writing the manuscripts in our own language, giving credit to the real author and including right references. He also suggested some of the important ways of writing the references.

On 09-8-2018, the extension lecture was organized on the topic, "Qualitative Research". The speaker for the day was Dr Supreet Kaur, Associate Professor, University School of Open Learning, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh. While speaking, Dr. Supreet Kaur defined research as a systematic inquiry to find answers to our problems. While explaining Qualitative Research, she said that this type of research describes persons, events etc. scientifically beyond data and numbers. She also reflected upon different methods of data collection for Qualitative Research such as case study, observation and ethnography. While elaborating case study, she said that in case study we need to select variables on the basis of speculative significance and not on the basis of crucial significance. Further, while explaining observation as a tool of Qualitative Research, she said that it needs rigorous analysis, examination and verification of the context of data. She also reflected upon ethnography as a method of field observation which is based on inductive logic.

Seminar on "Education in 21st Century"

24.07.2018

An International seminar on the topic "Education in 21st Century" was organized in the college on 24-07-2018 by Dr. Harleen Singh, Associate Professor of Literature and Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies, Barandies University, U.S.A. She emphasized on the fact that it is necessary to internalize the value of education and it should not be forced. While elaborating the relationship of us with education she emphasized that it is necessary to internalize the value of education and it should not be forced. She added that to be global does not mean ignoring your surroundings, but it means to be in our surrounding and then exploring the world. Further, while reflecting on the gender issue she said that we talk about gender at very later stage when we have dowry death or a rape, but it begins quite early when we start discriminating the male and female behaviour at very early age. She stressed that gender talk must be the necessary part of our education. She also appealed that in education natural ability of the learner should be kept in consideration for the harmonious development of the personality of the learner. She concluded by saying that in 21st Century we need flexible and dynamic thinkers to fulfill the global needs.

Extension Lecture on "Qualitative Research"

05.08.2017

Under the Student Enrichment Programme a series of Extension Lecture was organized on 05.08.2017 in the Premises of M.G.N. College of Education, Jalandhar. In this series, the lecture was organized on "Qualitative Research" by S.P.Malhotra, Ministry of Human Resource Development, New Delhi. While explaining the meaning of research, he said that every researcher dose the research on the basis of evidences and when research is put in to action it becomes action research. Further he said that every research is wholistic in nature and initiated with research questions. Further he added that all types of researches are imaginative and that imaginative aspect is called hypothesis in research. He also said that research is process oriented not product oriented and is done on extreme cases and has no specific answer. On this occasion, Principal Mrs.Neelu Jhanji gave a floral welcome to the guest. While giving vote of thanks, she appealed that we need to relate research with real life in order to make research lively and fruitful. Mrs. Daljeet Sheetak conducted the stage.

Extension Lecture on "Learning & Motivation"

26.07.2017

Under the Student Enrichment Programme, a series of Extension Lectures was organised in the premises of M.G.N. College of Education, Jalandhar ON 26.07.2017. In this series, the lecture was delivered by Dr. Surinder Kumar Sharma, Assistant Prof., International Center for Distance Education & Open Learning, H.P University, Shimla. While speaking, he explained the concepts of Learning & Motivation. He further said that teaching and Learning are two way proceses, in which active involvement of both teacher and student is must. He also explained the importance and role of Teaching Models and elaborated different teaching models. First he explained about Executive model which is a teacher oriented model in which learners are dependent on teacher. Next he explained Therapist model where learner is active and teacher plays the role of a facilitator, which includes Discovery Learning, Co-operative Learning. Third Model, that he explained was Librationist Model, where learner take the responsibility for their development and teacher works as catalyst. He also suggested Models for learners viz Acquisition model and Participation model. He further appealed that in today's scenario conscious teachers are needed not subconscious or unconscious teachers.
